

The following are the categories, name of the initiative and the award winners of FICCI SMART Policing Awards 2018:

Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Child Safety	Nirbheek	Delhi Police	Mr. Veenu Bansal, IPS , Deputy Commissioner of Police
As per the initiative, Police personnel are required to visit all the schools in their jurisdiction and organise interactive sessions with them and encourage them to approach police and report crime against them, which could be registered under the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act of 2012 (POSCO).
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Community Policing	Amcho Bastar Amcho Police	Chhattisgarh Police	Mr. D. Shravan, IPS , SP, Bastar
This initiative was started at Bastar region in 2009 to strengthen: police public partnership, make the police more sensitive, and, change in ideology to Maoist insurgency through public awareness &amp; participation. In addition, a Pink Team was constituted by women police officers, whose focus is safety, awareness and sensitivity to women and third gender.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Crime Investigation &amp; Prosecution	Punjab Artificial Intelligence System (PAIS)	Punjab Police	Mr. Dinkar Gupta, IPS , DG Intelligence
This technology is made accessible through a mobile app and has been developed to combat crime through advance facial recognition, natural language processing, gang analysis, phonetic search technologies amalgamated and unified as single entity.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Cyber Crime	Proactive Integrated Response Mechanism to tackle Cyber-Crime	Jharkhand Police	Mr. Navin Kumar Singh, IPS , IG (HR)-Cum Zonal IG, Ranchi & Nodal Officer for Cyber Crime in Jharkhand
The important components of the initiative are: generation of actionable intelligence, development of seamless interstate coordination mechanisms, bringing all stakeholders together, capacity building, enforcement of KYC norms, improving evidence collection by reverse engineering, and, tailored awareness programmes.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Elderly Safety	Senior Citizen Cell, Crime Branch Pune City	Maharashtra Police	Ms. Rashmi Shukla, Police Commissioner, Pune City
The Cell has assisted many elderly persons to solve their personal, legal and social problems. Many senior citizens are approaching the Cell everyday with their grievances, which are solved without any delays.

Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Emergency Response	Effective Highway Patrolling System in Karnataka State	Karnataka State Police	Ms. Neelmani N. Raju, IPS, Director General and Inspector General of Police
The initiative aims at reducing the fatalities by quickly responding to distress accident victims. In Karnataka, effective monitoring and quick response by team of specialized police personnel who are manning highway patrolling vehicles shown their effective work by immediately reaching the accident spots and rescued many victims. This is indicated by sharp decline in total number of fatalities.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Human Trafficking	Operation Smile	Uttar Pradesh Police	Mr. Dharmendra Singh, IPS, the then SSP, Ghaziabad
This national campaign was started in 2014 to work upon the problem of child trafficking and aims at developing investigative protocol for investigating officers and finally rescue missing children within the jurisdiction and beyond as well.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Road Safety &amp; Traffic Management	Intelligent Traffic Management System	Rajasthan Police	Ms. Lovely Katiyar, DCP-Traffic, Jaipur
Jaipur Police has set-up 'Speed Violation Detection System' and 'Red Light Violation System' which aims to put check on the road accidents caused by over speeding and rash less driving system generated notices, which are sent through courier service to the traffic law violators. In addition, this system has been linked with online 'E-mitra' for depositing the fines.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Smart Police Station	Third I Digital Platform for Enhancing Policing and Prevention of Crimes & Incidents	Maharashtra Police	Dr. Ravinder K. Singal, Commissioner of Police-Nashik
It is an online platform in which all Police Stations under the jurisdiction of Nashik Commissionerate fill their daily crime information through the online forms. The platform then automatically generates DCR, B-Statement (B-PATRAK) along with all the useful crime reports and analytics. It further generates multiple statistic reports.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Surveillance &amp; Monitoring	Safe City Monitoring & Response Centre and Integrated Security Surveillance System	Madhya Pradesh Police	Mr. Anvesh Manglam, IPS, ADG (Telecommunication), MP, Bhopal
This is first ever project in the country to be implemented in more than one city with capability to monitor at city level as well as State police headquarter in State Level Safe City Monitoring and Response Centre.

Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Training &amp; Capacity Building	Cyber Security Capacity Building	Madhya Pradesh Police	Mr. Varun Kapoor, IPS , Additional Director General of Police
In 2012, the Madhya Pradesh Police undertook pioneering steps in cyber security capacity building. The beneficiaries of the initiative were not only the State's Police Officials, but also the Indian Army, Central Armed Police Forces, Polices Forces of other States and citizens. The initiative has emerged as the longest and most all-inclusive project of its kind in the field of cyber security capacity building, being operated by any security force anywhere in the country.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Women Safety	Samvedna	Chhattisgarh Police	Mr. Arif H. Shaikh, IPS , SP-Bilaspur
The Samvedna Centre not only act as a one-stop help centre for women victims requiring urgent state intervention and care, but it also facilitates the rehabilitation of women. The Centres are a decentralised form of the 'Sakhi' One-Stop centre replicated at the local police station level across the entire district of Bilaspur in Chhattisgarh.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Other Policing Initiative	DNA Fingerprinting Direct Protocol – A path breaking initiative	Madhya Pradesh Police	Dr. Pankaj Shrivastava, DNA Expert, DNA Fingerprint Unit, State Forensic Science Laboratory, Sagar (M.P.)
A Direct Protocol for DNA extraction has been developed by State Forensic Science Laboratory, Sagar. It is a path breaking initiative different from the usual practice of DNA extraction, which takes more time and costs more money. Globally there is no such attempt published or reported.

Special Jury Awards

The Jury members also decided to confer 'Special Jury Awards' to the following initiatives

Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Child Safety	Project Udhayam – Towards a Child Safe Salem City	Tamil Nadu Police	Mr. Sanjay Kumar, IPS , the then Commissioner of Police, Salem / Mr. Georgy George, IPS , the then Deputy Commissioner of Police, Salem
The project act as an effective bridge between legislation and its intended beneficiaries by acting as a dedicated forum wherein the children are encouraged to discuss about the issue of sexual abuse, empower them with methods to protect themselves and act as a single point help centre for children who want to come out of victimhood by providing necessary legal and rehabilitation assistance.

Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Community Policing	Project Shashaktikaran	Odisha Police	Ms. Sarah Sharma, IPS, SP (Training), Biju Pattnaik State Police Academy, Bhubaneswar
The project aims at empowering the youth, women and children in left wing extremist areas of Deogarh district by delivery of services through citizen outreach through 1) Project 'Swabhimaan', which empowers women who are the victims of domestic violence 2) Project 'Shakti', which provides skill development training to unemployed youths 3) Project 'Sikshya', which fulfil the dreams of poor, tribal parents in the remotest part of the Naxal hit Deogarh for better education of their child.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Crime Investigation &amp; Prosecution	Pocket Cop Mobile Application	Gujarat Police	Dr. Shamsher Singh, ADG, SCRB, Gujarat
In the mobile app all records related to law &amp; order has been digitized since 2004 and this has improved efficiency of Gujarat Police in crime prevention and detection. Earlier retrieving information was cumbersome and time consuming. Now this information is available to Investigation Officer (I.O) on his / her mobile on a click.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Crime Investigation &amp; Prosecution	Case Officer Scheme Monitoring System (COSMOS)	Rajasthan Police	Mr. Harendra Kumar, IPS, Distt. Superintendent of Police, Sri Ganganagar (Rajasthan)
Under this initiative, an in-house software named COSMOS (Case officer scheme monitoring software) was developed for effective implementation of the case officer scheme. This software was designed for strongly tracking and monitoring of the case officer scheme against hardcore criminals.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Cyber Crime	Cyber Crime Prevention and Cyber Safety	Delhi Police	Mr. Anyesh Roy, IPS, Deputy Commissioner of Police, Cyber Crime, Special Cell, Delhi Police
This initiative has intensified the efforts of Delhi Police by use of advanced cyber forensics, capacity building of law enforcement agencies and harnessing of tools for proactive action against cyber criminals.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Cyber Crime	Cyberdome – A public private partnership initiative for cyber security	Kerala Police	Mr. Manoj Abraham, IPS, Inspector General of Police & Nodal Officer, Kerala Police Cyberdome
It envisages as a high tech public-private partnership centre of collaboration for different stakeholders in the domain of cyber security and handling of cyber-crimes in a proactive manner.

Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Human Trafficking	Anti-Human Trafficking Unit	West Bengal Police	Ms. Dulali Das, Inspectress of Police / Mr. Sadhan Kumar Ghosh, Sub-Inspector of Police / Mr. Suman Ghosh, Sub-Inspector of Police
This unit deals with matters which come under the purview of Immoral Trafficking Prevention Act, POSCO Act, 2012 and other sections of law of Indian Penal Code, relating to Human Trafficking.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Road Safety &amp; Traffic Management	Traffic Sentinel Scheme	Goa Police	Dr. Muktesh Chander, IPS, Director General of Police
Goa Police introduced the 'Traffic Sentinel Scheme' to encourage citizens to assist Traffic police. As a part of community policing participation of the citizen through Traffic Sentinel scheme is being sought on whatsapp No. 7875756110 and the citizen have voluntarily started reporting violations and registering themselves. By doing so the citizens are being awarded point for reported violation.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Road Safety &amp; Traffic Management	Road Accident Data Management System (RADMS)	Himachal Pradesh Police	Ms. Punita Bhardwaj, IPS DIG/TTR / Mr. Pankaj Sharma HPS Addl. SP/TTR
The primary objective of the RADMS project is to improve road safety outcomes in Himachal Pradesh by providing access to timely, complete and relevant information on road accident. This assists the stakeholders responsible for road safety accidents and to monitor safety performance of the roads in the State. The use of the RADMS system enables stakeholders to plan more efficient strategies to reduce the number and severity of road accidents and their impact on human lives.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Road Safety &amp; Traffic Management	Accident Resolution Team (ART)	Telangana State Police	Mr. VikramJeet Duggal, IPS, Commissioner of Police, Ramagundam
The initiative aims at forming ARTs, which identify the accident-prone areas (Accident Black Spots) in their region. The teams conduct an extensive study of the accidents occurred in each Black Spot and prepare a detailed report. Each ART consists of an inspector, Sarpanch or the municipal authority, officials of R&amp;B, panchayat raj, transport department, revenue and highway authority.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Smart Police Station	Use of IT in Police Stations	Assam Police	Mr. Anil Kr. Jha, IPS, Spl. DGP (CID) & CCTNS
Assam has implemented one of the most successful IT project in Assam where state of the art technology with high end infrastructure was set-up at district Police Stations and Higher Offices. This has brought considerable changes in the Police functioning as well as transparency in the delivery of citizen services.

Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Smart Police Station	Police Station – Seelampur	Delhi Police	Mr. Satish Kumar, SHO, Seelampur-PS
The Police Station got ISO 9001:2015 certification. The certification helps ensure that customers (in this case citizens) consistently receive high-quality products and services. An ISO certification would ensure accountability for police personnel.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Training &amp; Capacity Building	DOGS Training in CRPF	Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF)	Mr. J. Rajendran, DIG & Principal, DB&TS
CRPF's Dog breeding and Training School was established in 2011 at Taralu, Bengaluru, with the objective to breed and train the world renowned Belgian Shephard Dogs for counter insurgency operations. This institute provide 'multipurpose' training to the dogs, while other organisations train dogs on 'one trade one dog' philosophy.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Training &amp; Capacity Building	Skill Maximization and Reorientation through Online Examination (SMART-ONE)	Chandigarh Police	Mr. Tajender Singh Luthra, IPS, Director General of Police
The initiative aims at enhancing the knowledge of all ranks of Chandigarh Police from Constable to SP through conducting mandatory online examination of about 6000 employees. Those who do not qualify the test in the first attempt, must appear in the test gain after 15 days.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Training &amp; Capacity Building	e-Suraksha Chakra	Uttarakhand Police	Ms. Ridhim Aggarwal, IPS, SSP, STF, Uttarakhand, Dehradun
The initiative aims at providing 5 days skill enhancement training for about 750 Uttarakhand police investigating officers on cybercrime – current scenario, detection and investigation techniques.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Women Safety	'Himmat Plus' App	Delhi Police	Mr. Amulya Patnaik, Commissioner of Police
This revamped version of Himmat app aims at providing instant help/ assistance to women in distress. Secondary aim is to help and build trust between women passengers and drivers plying public transport. The jury members of the Smart Policing Awards desired that this facility should also be rolled out in the NCR as well.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Women Safety	Women Safety	Railway Protection Force (RPF)	Mr. Dharmendra Kumar, Director General
To extend security related assistance on real time basis to rail passengers, especially women passengers during their journey and at station area, RPF Security 24X7 Helpline No. 182 was set-up throughout the country in 2015.

Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Other Policing Initiative	Smart Protection Unit	Assam Police	Mr. Harmeet Singh, IPS , Addl. DGP (S/M&L), Assam Police Headquarters
The philosophy behind this unit is to avoid inconvenience to public and at the same time provide fool proof safety and security, with the use of technology and manpower trained in soft skills. In addition, this initiative aims at reducing costs, particularly hidden ones.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Other Policing Initiative	Transparent Recruitment Process	Karnataka Police	Mr. Raghvendra Auradkar, IPS , Additional Director General of Police, Recruitment
Over the years continuous use of technology and improvisation has helped in documenting and maintaining integrity of the recruitment process. Integration of SMS and uploading of information on the Police recruitment website has ensured that the candidates are aware of all process concerning recruitment including dates of personalist test etc. Every candidate has a comprehensive 'My Application' file in the system. Online payment of fees has made process convenient for candidates.
Category	Name of Initiative	Submitted by	Concerned Officer (s)
Other Policing Initiative	Vahan Samanvay (Smart Digital Solution to Trace Stolen/ Missing Vehicles)	National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB)	Mr. Sanjay Mathur, Jt. Director (CCTNS)
Through this system, Police, RTOs and Public can make online queries regarding the status of lost/ stolen and recovered vehicles through the NCRB's central database of lost and recovered vehicles provided by Police Stations across the country.

Special Jury Award – SMART Police Officer

The Jury members appreciated the tremendous effort made by the following police officers and conferred the 'Special Jury - SMART Police Officer Award' on them:

- Mr. Ashish Tiwari, IPS, in his capacity as Superintendent of Police, Mirzapur (UP) had taken many initiatives in areas such as crime investigation & prosecution, intelligence collection, women safety and other areas of policing.
- Mr. Amit Lodha, IPS in the DIG in BSF and made important contribution in setting-up of Bharat Ke Veer online portal, which provide a direct interface for Indian citizens to contribute to the cause of CAPF martyrs. He has also been appointed as a nodal officer for this project.
- Mr. Anil Kumar Sharma, SHO of Kirti Nagar Police Station in New Delhi, undertook various citizen-centric initiatives and due to his efforts, the Station became one of the best Police Stations in India.

- Ms. Rekha Mishra, is presently posted as Sub-Inspector at Chhatrapati Shivaji Terminus railway station (Mumbai) and has been striving hard to help Railway Protection Force (RPF) to achieve excellence in area of Child Rescue and aiding the destitute children spotted in and around the station area. Her efforts yielded in successful rescue and rehabilitation of approx. 100 minors.
- Mr. Sandip Pal in his capacity as Constable – Community Policing Wing, West Bengal Police undertook a very successful community policing initiative known as Goalz Project. The programme is maturing very quickly and delivering quality work in very disadvantaged communities and thus helping to combat crime.

The 'Special Jury – SMART Innovative Policing Award' was will be conferred on the Andhra Pradesh Police, in appreciation for the Initiatives taken for safety and security for citizens. They had taken many innovative initiatives in areas such as crime investigation & prosecution, and, surveillance & monitoring. Mr. M. Malakondaiah, IPS, DGP, Andhra Police received the award along with his team.