S1. Ans. (c)

Sol. preferable itself means more, if you are preferring something then it is already more than other thing so adding more is redundant.

S2. Ans. (a)

Sol. As there are 3 leaders we are talking about among many and helping verb is also given according to the subject so subject should be plural and thus leader should be replaced by leaders.

S3. Ans. (c)

Sol. Meetings should be replaced with meeting as it is an uncountable noun.

Owing to means - because of.

S4. Ans. (c)

Sol. He, is a singular pronoun, will take singular verb so replace apply with applies.

S5. Ans. (c)

Sol. Taste for means a liking for something.

'Taste in' means the ability to distinguish the good from bad in some area of knowledge. So with the context as there is no taste so it will take "for" with it

S6. Ans. (a)

Sol. better should be replaced with "had better" which means "should", even "should" can also replace "better".

S7. Ans. (a)

Sol. your is a possessive adjective which should have noun after it, but here, there is no context of possession thus "your" should be replaced with "you are" which goes with the context.

S8. Ans. (b)

Sol. Replace despite with although.

Even though/ Although + clause.

Despite / in spite of + a noun / gerund.

"He had received the best medical help" is a clause in itself and "the patient dies is also another clause" that need to be joined with "conjunction" which is although not with "preposition" which is despite.
