Solutions

S1. Ans.(b)

Sol. Passage states that – For women, who did not have access to higher education as men did, literary salons provided an alternate route to learning and a challenge to some of society’s basic assumptions about women, which is mentioned in option B.

S2. Ans.(b)

Sol. A significant distinction between the salonnières and Bluestockings was the role of pleasure in the activities of the literary salon, that is answer is option B. All other options are not suited for a significant distinction between the salonnières and Bluestockings. Hence, the answer is option B.

S3. Ans.(d)

Sol. As it is mentioned in the passage that – In an atmosphere of mutual support, the Bluestockings went beyond the salon experience. They travelled, studied, worked, wrote for publication, and by their activities challenged the stereotype of the passive woman, therefore, option D is an answer. Hence, the answer is option D.

S4. Ans.(c)

Sol. Option C is the answer, as it is most compatible with the principles of the salonnières as described in the passage. Whereas, option A, is incorrect as it is not related to the principles. Similarly, options B and D are incorrect. Hence, the answer is option C.

S5. Ans.(a)

Sol. The answer is option A, as it is satisfying with question. Other options are not related to the question. Hence, the answer is option A.

S6. Ans.(d)

Sol. Answer is option D, as it is considered a twentieth-century counterpart of an eighteenth century literary salon as it is described in the passage. Other options are not related to the counterpart and therefore, not correct. Hence, the answer is option D.

S7. Ans.(b)

Sol. As it is mentioned in the last passage that women’s are not feminists, and as per the question – To an assertion that Bluestockings were feminists, the author would most probably respond in a qualified disagreement way. Hence, the answer is option B.
